

Where To Find Your Free COVID-19 Vaccine This Season

Updated 2024-2025 COVID-19 vaccines are now available to better protect you against serious illness from COVID-19. Visit vaccines.gov to find an updated COVID-19 vaccine near you.

Most people can get COVID-19 vaccines at no cost through their private health insurance, Medicare, and Medicaid plans. If you have private health insurance, check with your employer or insurance plan. Find a provider in your network before getting your COVID-19 vaccine to decrease or avoid out-of-pocket costs. If you do not currently have health insurance:

- Visit www.HealthCare.gov to learn more about affordable health coverage options.
- Visit www.ssa.gov/medicare/sign-up for more information about Medicare eligibility.
- Contact your state Medicaid program to see if you qualify.

Uninsured? Free COVID-19 Vaccines May Still Be Available

CDC's Vaccines for Children \(VFC\) program provides vaccines at no cost to eligible children through healthcare providers enrolled in the program.

CDC is providing new funding for 2024-2025 COVID-19 vaccines for public health departments. Adults without health insurance or with insurance that doesn't cover all COVID-19 vaccine costs may be able to find a free COVID-19 vaccine. Here are ways you can look for a free COVID-19 vaccine near you:

▪ Contact Your Local Health Department

There will be 2024-2025 COVID-19 vaccines available through state and local health departments. Find a local health department near you and contact them to ask if they have free COVID-19 vaccines available. Health departments may require an appointment or have an enrollment process so please call to ask about COVID-19 vaccine availability before going.

▪ Find a Local HRSA-supported Health Center

HRSA-supported health centers provide care to patients regardless of their ability to pay at approximately 15,000 sites across the country. Most health centers have 2024-2025 COVID-19 vaccines available and adjust their fees based on income and family size. Find a health center near you at <https://findahealthcenter.hrsa.gov/>.

